

SUMMER SCHOOL AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

Howard University, well known as the leading school for the education of Negro youth, is to hold this year under the auspices of its Teacher's College, a Summer School, during the month of July, which will appeal to the large body of Negro teachers all over the country, especially in the larger cities and in the States surrounding the District of Columbia, in answer to whose demand the school has been established. The circular, just issued, presents a formidable array of teachers and courses.

Among the subjects listed are Kindergarten Principles and Methods, Primary School, English, Mathematics, History, Sociology, Biology, Nature Study Geography, Physics, Psychology, and Pedagogy, Philosophy of Education, Methods of Teaching, Organization and Management, Manual Training, Modeling, Raffia, Reed and Basketry, Sewing, Dressmaking and Millinery.

PROF. L. B. MOORE,

Dean of The Teacher's College, Howard University.

The faculty is made up of such well known educators as Dr. John Gordon, President of the University; President Stanley G. Hall, of Clark University; Dr. Booker T. Washington, who will give one lecture on Education; Supt. James M. Van Sickle, of Baltimore, Md.; Dr. L. R. Klem, Specialist in U. S. Bureau of Education; Dr. George W. Hull, of Millersville Normal School, Pa.; Dr. J. H. N. Waring, Principal of Colored High Schools, of Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Myers, Assistant Superintendent of Washington Public Schools; Prof. Kelly Miller; Dean George W. Cook and others of like standing in educational circles. Dr. L. B. Moore, the Dean of the Teachers' College is Director of the Summer School.

Board and lodging will be offered on the University grounds, and the whole expense of the Summer School has been reduced to about fifteen dollars. ($15.) It is expected that several hundred teachers will take advantage of this opportunity.

The death of Mr. Carlisle Mason in Chicago last Saturday, came as a shock to his many friends in this city. He was a brother of Miss Anna Mason, one of our best-known local school teachers, and was stricken suddenly while out driving.

METROPOLITAN A. M. E. NOTES.

Woman's Day at Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, the fourth Sunday in May, at 4 p. m. This mass meeting to be held under the auspices of the Woman's Day, carries with it the hope that much practical good will be accomplished. We invite the ministers of the district to help us in this effort that is being made for the improvement of our children. We feel that in proportion as our children are trained to be good, useful citizens, the vexed problems will be solved. The future of the Negro rests with the mothers—the women who must often, working with raw material, present to the world characters that will be creditable to any community. Won't the ministers, from their pulpits urge the parents to join with us in this crusade?

The cantata, "Laila," by the S. S. on the 26th of May, promises to be largely attended, judging by the demand for tickets. The small sum of twenty-five cents is charged as an admission fee. This is a beautiful cantata, and the stage scenes are to be as realistic as possible. The music, calcium lights, and decorations are all to be in keeping with the tastes of those who appreciate the higher class of entertainments.

Rev. E. H. Hunter preached for us at both services on Sunday. The thoroughness with which he handled his texts, showed a prayerful, thoughtful study of them. It is likely that a stranger will speak at one of the services for Sunday.

The pastor's class is being instructed in the twenty-five articles of religion or faith, that they may intelligently make the necessary pledges when they present themselves for full membership, in June. Rev. E. H. Hunter has charge of the class each Friday evening.

Y. P. S. C. E. every Sunday, at 6 p. m. The president, Mr. Tyler Hill, is at his post again, and promises better work this year than last.

NEW REAL ESTATE FIRM.

Mr. L. Melendez King, our popular attorney, who has offices located at 609 F street northwest, has secured a five years' lease on the old Capital Savings Bank building, and has moved his office from the third floor to the first floor, formerly occupied by the bank. In connection with his legal practice, he is doing a general real estate business, having for his associates, Mr. J. A. Lankford, architect for the True Reformer's Bank, and Mr. James L. Neill, an enterprising citizen. Mr. King will be glad to see his many friends in his new quarters, and wishes to announce that his real estate business will not interfere with his law practice.

The Southern Hotel continues to grow in popular favor. It is one of the most up to date hotels in the city, and manager Stewart is untiring in his effort to give the public the best that can be had for the money. Mr. Edward C. Allen, the head mixologist, knows and is known by everybody, and his friends are legion. He is a drawing card at the Southern. He hails from the "United States of Georgia."

Mr. C. L. Marshall, of Farmville, Va., and well-known in this city, spent a few days here last week.

The Grand Fountain of the United Order of True Reformers

Is the leading Colored Fraternal Society of the United States. It was organized January, 1881, by William W. Browne, and chartered in April, 1883, under the laws of the State of Virginia, with headquarters at Richmond, Va. Its membership is both male and female, and consists of all persons of good health from 14 to 60 years of age. Its membership of 60,000 is divided into Fountains and Circles. It pays sick benefits from $1.50 to $2.50 per week, and pays death benefits from $24.56 to $1000.

BENEFITS PAID—Total benefits paid to date: Sick dues, $2,500,000; death benefits, $714,378.75.

SENIOR FOUNTAINS—A Fountain may be organized consisting of 20 or more persons not over 50 years of age paying a joining fee of from $4.60 to $5.10 each. The monthly dues are not less than 35 cents in rural districts and not less than 50 cents per month in towns and cities, and a semi-annual tax of 40 cents paid in January and July of each year. Sick benefits paid are from $1.50 to $2.50 per week, while death benefits range from $75 to $125. A Fountain may be organized in any locality on application to Rev. W. L. Taylor, G. W. Master, or to any of his authorized deputies.

ROSEBUDS—For the proper training of the young and their development in thrift, industry and brotherly love, there has been formed a Children's Department known as the Rosebuds. Twenty or more children not less than three nor more than fourteen years of age may form a Rosebud, upon the payment of $1 each. This department, like the Senior Fountain, pays sick benefits from $1 to twenty-five cents per week, and death benefits from $24.50 to $37. The monthly dues are fifteen cents per month.

CLASSES—Persons desiring to leave their beneficiaries at death a larger amount than is paid from Fountain Department, take out policies in one or more of the Classes of the Mutual Benefit Degree. The members of this degree are divided into Circles, and pay joining fees and dues according to the following tables:

REGALIA—The members of the Fountains and Rosebuds of the organization wear no expensive regalia. The regalia of the organization is simple and its cost will be in the easy reach of all, costing from 10 cents to $3. The same is made by the organization in what is known as the Regalia Department.

THE SAVINGS BANK—In March, 1888, there was granted by the Legislature of Virginia a charter to the Savings Bank of the Grand Fountain United Order of True Reformers, capital stock $100,000. The bank commenced business April 3, 1889, and from that time down to the present has steadily increased in volume of business. It now has a paid up capital stock of $100,000. From the humble sum of $1,268.69, deposited the first day the bank opened for business in 1889 the deposits have grown to $350,058, and the volume of business transacted amounts to $6,190,147.47. During the financial panic of 1893, the Savings Bank of the Grand Fountain was the only bank in the city of Richmond that did not cease to pay cash on all checks presented, while the majority of other banks were using script and clearing house checks. This bank had its origin in the brain of William W. Browne, an ex-slave of Hammersham, Ga. The banking house is located at 604 North Second Street, Richmond, Va., Rev. W. L. Taylor, President; R. T. Hill, Cashier.

REAL ESTATE DEPARTMENT—The Real Estate Department has charge of all the real property to the amount of $220,221.65, situated in various States, consisting of 13 magnificent buildings used as halls, 8 dwellings, 1 hotel, 5 stores and three farms. It also has under its control 16 large buildings leased by it. This department is under the management of Lawyer J. C. Robertson, chief of real estate and attorney for the association, office at 608 N. 2nd Street, Richmond, Va.

REFORMERS MERCANTILE AND INDUSTRIAL ASSOCIATION—Was chartered under the laws of the State of Virginia on the 14th day of December, 1899, with principal office in the city of Richmond, Va. The purpose of this association is to conduct stores (wholesale and retail), buy and sell real property, manage and control hotels, manufacturing establishments, and do general business. The association has in operation Hotel Reformer, 900 N. Sixth Street, Richmond, Va. It is a modern up-to-date structure, heated by steam, cold and hot water baths, also electric cars passing the door. This hotel has accommodations for 150 guests. Mr. A. W. Holmes is manager, and Mr. T. W. Taylor is clerk. It has in operation a system of five stores, located as follows: Richmond, Va.; Washington, D. C.; Manchester, Va.; Portsmouth, Va.; and Roanoke, Va. The first of these stores, at Richmond, Va., was opened April 3d, 1900. It employs a force of 18 men, runs three delivery wagons, and during the first year did $50,000 worth of business. The other stores have been established since, and have been equally prosperous. The general manager of the system of stores is Mr. B. L. Jordan, headquarters at 608 N. Second Street, Richmond, Va. This Association was organized on the plans and recommendations made by Rev. W. L. Taylor, its president.

THE REFORMER PRINTING DEPARTMENT—Issues a weekly journal, THE REFORMER, which has a circulation of 12,000. This paper is published in the interest of the race, and discusses the leading questions of the day. The subscription price is $1 per year, or 5c. per single copy. The office is equipped with modern up-to-date machinery, run by electricity. It can print any thing from a visiting card to a poster 42 by 62 inches. Fine job work of every class and description is made a specialty at lowest prices. Mr. E. W. Brown is editor and business manager, office 608 N. Second Street, Richmond, Va. Correspondence solicited and agents wanted.

OLD FOLKS' HOME—In September, 1893, Rev. William W. Browne recommended the formation and establishment of Old Folks' Homes for the benefit of old and decrepit members of the race. Since that time the valuable farm known as Westham, consisting of 634 1/2 acres, located 1 1/2 miles from Richmond, Va., on the historic "James," has been purchased, at a cost of $14,490. The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad runs through the farm, and Westham Station is located on it. Adjoining this farm is Westhampton Park, one of the most pleasant resorts in the South in summer. It is reached in a few minutes from Richmond by the Westhampton Electric Railway and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. As this home is for the benefit of the whole race, the cooperation of all charitable friends is prayerfully solicited. All contributions, donations and requests of every character will be very thankfully received. Mr. T. W. Taylor is chief in charge of the Old Folks' Home, offices at 608 North Second Street, Richmond, Va.
